McFetridge to visit Eyre Peninsula

Shadow Minister for Health, Mental Health and Substance Abuse, and Veterans' Affairs Duncan McFetridge will visit Eyre Peninsula next week to hear the views of local health professionals.

"Country Health services are so important for the people of Flinders, so I'm glad that Duncan has made the time to visit and listen to the concerns of health professionals and patients," Liberal Member for Flinders said today.

The three day visit, beginning Sunday, will include:

- A tour of the Port Lincoln Hospital on Monday afternoon
- A meeting with local mental health carers
- Listening to patients and users of the Patient Assistance Transport Scheme (PATs)
- A meeting with veterans at the RSL.
