Your voice in State Parliament

PARLIAMENT

The impact on coastal communities of proposed sanctuary zones for marine parks has been a prominent issue during this session of Parliament.

It's important to make your views known by writing to the Premier and the Minister for Environment, or emailing your feedback on the draft preliminary sanctuary zones.

A Grain Handling Select Committee has been established, with a report expected in September. For more information visit: www.parliament.sa.gov.au

COMMUNITY ISSUES

I have attended public meetings at Ceduna and Streaky Bay regarding proposed marine park sanctuary zones.

My colleagues and I have been active in working towards retaining the night shift at the Ceduna Quarantine Station, which remains an important biosecurity facility for the State.

I've continued to lobby the State Government for more consistent Heavy Vehicle Access across Eyre Peninsula, especially for the next grain harvest.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

The Penong Races gave me the opportunity to talk with locals. It's always a great day out and this year's race meeting was fantastic.

Attended the Ceduna Area School Sports Day that showed the team spirit in action. Well done to all involved.

South Australia's Strategic Plan Regional Consultation saw locals raise issues of importance. It was another opportunity to highlight our contribution to the State.
